What is the LSC Cambridge FCE course?

A full-time 20 hours per week course that prepares students for the Cambridge FCE exam on Thursday 26 August 2010.

Why Cambridge FCE?

FCE stands for First Certificate in English. It is an exam for people who can use everyday written and spoken English at an upper-immediate level. It is an ideal exam for people who want to use English for work or study purposes.

Who is it for?

The course is for all students that want to gain the Cambridge FCE qualification.

Why LSC?

Established in 1975, London Study Centre is accredited by the British Council and has an excellent reputation, traditionally offering training in the fields of English language to over 2000 students every year from more than 70 countries.

LSC is an authorised exam centre for Cambridge ESOL exams, and enjoys very good pass marks: in December 2009, 83% of our students passed Cambridge FCE.

Cambridge ESOL is a department of the world-famous
University of Cambridge

Course information

This is a 20 hours per week course with a maximum of 15 students delivered by qualified English tutors from 9.00 am - 2.00 pm on Mondays to Fridays. All delegates must have higher intermediate level English. We will confirm your level of English prior to enrolment.

All students will follow the LSC Cambridge FCE exam preparation course from 9am - 12pm. This course uses a specialist course book which focuses on exam practice technique, and it also allows students to focus on areas of general English: reading, writing, listening and speaking.

In addition, students will also study either Conversation & Pronunciation or Writing & Grammar for 1 hour per day from 1pm - 2pm based on our assessment of their English language ability.

Location

LSC offers these courses at Fulham Palace and Munster House, which are both in the heart of London.

Course price £650

Notes: Price includes specialist course book, LSC registration fee and Cambridge exam fee.
