London & Eastbourne Homestay Accommodation

Homestay accommodation is an important part of a student's integration into the British way of life. Living with a homestay provider means that students immerse themselves in British culture, accelerate their English language learning and also enhance their learning experience.

Homestays are in safe areas within easy travelling distance of the Twin centre or public transport for easy access to work placements.

Our residences in east and southeast London offer budget, mid-range and premium accommodation within easy travelling distance of central London and Twin English Centre.

- Single rooms arranged in self-contained flats
- Shared kitchen, toilet and bathroom
- Available on a self-catering basis for long and short-term lets
